BIG ARMISTICE DAY CELEBRATION IN HONDO.

Everything is ready for one of the biggest events ever staged in this section when the gates open next Monday morning at the Medina County fair grounds in Hondo for the annual Armistice Day celebration. A full days program has been arranged by the committees in charge.

Preliminary to the opening of the celebration at the fair grounds is a football game between Sabinal All Stars and the Hondo All Stars. This game will be at 10 A. M. at the Hondo High School athletic field.

The program at the fair grounds opens at 11:15 A. M. with a patriotic address by Hon. Julian LaCrosse, prominent District Attorney of Del Rio. Hon. R. J. Noonan, Medina County Judge, will introduce the speaker.

At 12 noon the free barbecue, with all the trimmings, will be served. At 1:30, Sis Merritt's dancing class will give a free entertainment in the dance hall. Calf roping, ring tournaments, and greased pig catching contests will occupy the program for the rest of the afternoon. The last event on the program is a dance with music by Jimmie Klein's Orchestra.

The Hondo Chapter of the Future Farmers of America have completed arrangements for a project show and agricultural exhibit at the Fair Grounds. The project show will include all of the calves, pigs, and other animals being fed by the boys as their agricultural projects. The agricultural exhibit will contain specimens of all important Medina County crops.

The 9th Infantry band of Fort Sam Houston will furnish music throughout the day. This event is sponsored by the citizens of Hondo and Medina County. No admission will be charged for entrance into the grounds or for the barbecue.

ANNUAL CONFERENCE NOTES.

The seventy-seventh session of the West Texas Annual Conference was held in San Antonio, at the Travis Park Methodist church, last week and came to a close last Sunday morning, with the closing service being held in the Municipal Auditorium. The seating capacity was filled to its limit with the Methodists of San Antonio, and many others living within the bounds of the West Texas Annual Conference. It is gratifying to know that the reports for the past year were much more encouraging than the reports of the preceding year. There was quite a financial gain over the year before, as well as a substantial gain in members, and most especially upon profession of faith.

Bishop H. A. Boaz brought us a most wonderful message Sunday morning from the text, "Be thou faithful unto death, and I will give thee a crown of life", after which he read the appointments, assigning the preachers to their fields of work for the new year. There were a great many changes made throughout the Conference, with several changes in the Uvalde District, which took some of our pastors from us, and giving us a number of new pastors. We shall make mention of a few of the pastors who have been well known in this section, and also give their appointments for the next year, as follows: Rev. Gaston was assigned to Staples, Rev. Banks to Ganado, Rev. Fred to Cuero, Rev. Ezelle to Sinton, Rev. Williamson was reassigned to Boerne and Center Point, Rev. Foster was returned to Three Rivers, Rev. J. Troy Hickman, who formerly lived at Hondo, was assigned to Mercedes; and Rev. Buchanan goes to Alice; Rev. Deckert goes back to Bandera; Horace M. King was renamed extension secretary, Board of Christian Education; Rev. P. E. Lancaster was returned to Prospect Hill, San Antonio; Rev. L. D. Hardt to Buda; Rev. C. E. Wheat to Donna; Rev. Sterling Fisher, Presiding Elder Corpus Christi District; Rev. D. G. Hardt to Skidmore, Rev. F. W. Radetzky to Art; Rev. Charles T. Hardt to Castell; Rev. F. W. Radetzky, Commissioner Southwestern Advocate, Llano District. Rev. M. L. Darby, owing to declining health, was placed on the superannuate list.

The following is the list of the pastors and their respective charges for the Uvalde District, viz.: Presiding Elder, J. J. Mason; Asherton-La-Pryor, M. E. Deakens; Brackettville-Quemado, W. A. Belcher; Carrizo Springs, B. A. Myers; Cotulla, S. M. Bailey; Crystal City, Geo. J. Steinman; Del Rio, L. C. Beasley; Devine-Lytle, W. H. Marshall; Dilley, S. S. Davis; Eagle Pass, J. G. Palmer; Hondo, Shan M. Hull; Jourdanton-Charlotte, M. H. Keene; Laredo, W. S. Highsmith; New Fountain, Robert Paine; Pearsall, J. L. Bryant; Poteet-Christine, L. D. Brown; Rocksprings-Montell, F. M. Jackson; Sabinal, H. H. Washington; Somerset-Oak Island, T. H. Crowder; Utopia, W. L. Jenkins; Uvalde, J. H. Meredith; Yancey, S. H. Crockett; Commissioner, Southwestern Advocate, S. M. Hull.

We wish to take this opportunity of expressing our most hearty appreciation and thanks to the good people of the Hondo Methodist Church for the many courtesies and good will that have been shown the pastor and his family during the past two years; our stay in Hondo has been happy and pleasant. We are hoping for better things to come to pass in the work of the church this coming ... than the two years past. We are very anxious to make this the greatest year in our ministry up to this time; by the help of the people, and their most hearty cooperation, we feel that same can be done. Let's all start in with the new year, with the determination to undertake to do more for our Lord and His cause this year than ever before. Let's strive to be more regular at church and Sunday school and may the blessing of the Lord rest upon his cause in the Methodist Church and the other churces of the city.

IN MEMORIAM.

George Isaac Wilson, the subject of this sketch, was born on the 16th day of November, 1871, at Gatesville, Texas, and departed this life in Hondo, Texas, November 3, 1935, in the 64th year of his age.

In many respects Mr. Wilson served his day and generation unusually well. As a business man he was industrious, higny successful, and was the soul of honor. With others he was instrumental in establishing the First National Bank of this city and was for some years its capable cashier. The state of his health made his retirement advisable. He then secured and operated for about 25 years the present splendid system of water supply for the city, an achievement which will ever imbed his name in our city's history. He was also wide awake to the progress of the life of the people along all worthy lines, being an active member of the local school board for years preceding his untimely death.

The home life of this good man was such as to approach the ideal. Devoted, unstintedly, as a husband and father. His sorely bereaved family have only words of unmixed praise for him as such. In relation to the publice, it is conceded that he was "everybody's friend". That he should have an enemy seems unthinkable, for by neither word nor deed has Isaac Wilson ever sought to injure anyone. The soul of kindness possessed him. A heart as pure as that of a child was his, while his life before men was left without a cloud.

The explanation of this universal esteem and favor in which he was held is doubtless found in his religious convictions. "Thou shalt love the Lord thy God with all thy heart, soul, mind and strength; and thy neighbor as thyself" was a law to this man. No man can be quite right with either himself or his fellows unless he is right with God. His faith, moreover, was intelligent. Christ's death on the cross to him meant expiation, satisfaction for his sins, while His resurrection from the dead meant eternal hope for the trusting soul. Jesus was his Saviour, his Guide, his Companion, therefore, he loved his church and there regularly worshipped God; and gave regular support to all it represented.

His passing from earth was shockingly sudden, for two hours before his death he appeared to be in perfect health, tenderly caring for the comfort of his devoted wife. Today he rests and rejoices in the presence of the ransomed hosts, in the land where sorrow more shall ne'er be known.

Soldier of Christ, well done,
Rest from they loved employ;
The battle's fought, the vict'ry won,
Enter thy Master's joy.

The funeral services were held in his church home, the beautiful Baptist church building, Monday afternoon, November 4th, at 4 o'clock. The multitudes of kind friends evidenced their love by packing the building to its capacity. Every element of our people was represented. The Pastor, Rev. R. W. Merrill, gave the address, using the 23rd division of the Psalms as the basis of his remarks. There the Father leads his child into peace-rest, then to an invigorated experience, then to a life of righteousness, then through the valley of the shadow of deathh—on to the Father's House, there to dwell forevermore. Bro. Hull gave the prayer. The music was impressive and appropriate. The burial obsequies in Oakwood Cemetery, were under the auspices of the local Masonic Fraternity.

In addition to the sorrowing wife there are ten noble children who survive. They are Mrs. George Gilliam, Corpus Christi, Texas; John Robert Wilson, Long Beach, California; Charles Wilson, Dickinson, Texas; Mrs. Earl Lacy, Troup, Texas; Homer Wilson, Hondo, Texas; Joe Harvey Wilson, Harlingen, Texas; Mrs. Rudolph Rath, Hondo, Texas; George Isaac Wilson, Refugio, Texas; Miss Thelma Wilson and Miss Mary Ruth Wilson of Hondo. Five little granddaughters also survive.

R. W. MERRILL.

LADIES' AID MEETS.

The Ladies' Aid Society of St. Paul's Lutheran Church met Wednesday afternon at the home of Mrs. F. R. Grube. The meeting was opened by Rev. W. Leibfarth with a Scripture reading, followed by a brief talk. A short business session was held, after which the hostess served refreshments of sandwiches, cookies and coffee to the following members and guests: Rev. and Mrs. Leibfarth, Mesdames Alice Reinhart, Annie Stiegler, Robert Richter, Wm. Mussman, L. A. Mechler, Chas. Haass, Alice Karm, Mary Karm, Felix Batot, H. E. Haass, Robert Graff, and Alfred Breiten, and Misses Wenmohs, Irene Haass, Alice Muennink, and Josie Mussman.

$2,000,000,000—THREE MONTHS' SPENDING.

During recent years, the American public has become accustomed to astronomical statistics—especially in the field of government spending. The days when a million dollars was an impressive sum seem to be over, at least temporarily—it takes at least ten figures to elicit much in the way of public interest nowadays.

Even so, here is a fact that should command the earnest and thoughtful attention of us all: Federal government expenditures for a little over three months of the current fiscal year passed the $2,000,000,000 mark—breaking all previous records in the country's peace-time history, according to a New York Times article based on Treasury reports.

Every nickel of that $2,000,000,000 either came out of our pockets—or must come out of them in the future, when the deficit must be realistically faced. Every nickel of it comes out of the salaries of workmen, the slim profits of industry, the meagre returns paid investors. Billions that could otherwise be used to provide additional employment or raise wages, to build factories, to expand old industries and initiate new ones, go to the tax collector.

Two billion dollars would create 500,000 four-thousand-dollar homes. It would employ 1,666,666 men for a year at wages of $100 per month. It would build 20,000 one-hundred-thousand-dollar factories which could produce necessities and luxuries, up purchasing power, and provide jobs. If it were simply divided equally, it would give every man, woman and child in this country $16.

Those illustrations give an idea of the almost inconceivable rate at which a single governmental unit is spending the people's money. And remember—that $2,000,000,000 represents but three months' spending. State and local governments are equally prodigal. Is it any wonder that authority after authority says that tax reduction would give the greatest possible spur to recovery?—Industrial News Review.

148 YEARS OF CONSTITUTIONAL LIBERTY.

On September 17, the Constitution of the United States was 148 years old. Observation of Constitution Day has focused public attention on that great document—and on the dangers that are now besetting it.

It is no exaggeration to say that Constitutional rights and privileges are menaced—that political experimentation with theories of alien origin are usually the direct antithesis of the American scheme of government—and that many of the politicians who pay lip service to the Constitution in high-sounding speeches, are among the leaders of those who emasculate it.

Some are urging that a Constitutional Amendment be passed whereby Congress and the President would be given vastly broader powers than they now possess—in spite of the fact that such an amendment would very possibly make the Bill of Rights meaningless. Others advocate a law depriving the Supreme Court of its right to pass on the constitutionality of legislation—even though that would eliminate the principal reason for the very existence of the Court, and make it no different from lower tribunals. Still others are urging new judicial "interpretations" of Constitutional provisions whereby the original meaning would be warped. And there are those who think it feasible to circumvent the Constitution, by political chicanery whereby laws can be kept away from a Supreme Court decision for a long period of time, until their unconstitutional ends have been attained.

It is inevitable that changes in the Cnstitution will weaken it—that the protecting arm it now holds out over human rigths, property rights and individual liberties and prerogatives will be made less strong. No document has withstood the vicissitudes of a changing century and a half so well—none has so completely achieved the purpose of free, democratic government. The Constitution is the very soul of America—without it, we would be no different from those other nations whose people are now feeling the mailed fist of dictators, at the expense of freedom of the press, freedom of action, freedom to live, think and speak as one wishes.—Industrial News Review.

TAXES EXCEED DIVIDENDS.

In a letter to stockholders, the president of a representative large American merchandising corporation, points out that it pays a dividend of $1.00 a share—while its taxes amount to $1.12 a share. The letter says, in part: "Your thoughtful consideration of tax figures will bring

QUALITY OF PECANS GOOD.

Doubting the claim made by some buyers that the Medina River bottom pecans were not so good this year, R. A. Biediger visited his uncle's grove over on the river one day last week and made a rather careful inspection of the pecans being gathered from a large number of trees. It is his opinion that the pecans are of an average quality and the nuts are some larger this year, due probably to the unusual rainfall throughout the year. He reports that his father, Henry Biediger, is shipping some pecans to Corpus Christi.

Miss Wurzbach is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Adolph Wurzbach of Medina County and graduated from Hondo High School in 1933.

JANE WITHERS HAS LEAD IN "GINGER".

Remember the brat in "Bright Eyes", who imitated a machine gun, told tales on Shirley Temple, tried to run her down with a doll carriage and proved herself a complete annoyance?

She's Jane Withers a chubby, independent little girl of nine, about so high, with dark brown hair and blue-gray eyes, who has proven herself another one of Fox Film's sensational discoveries.

With Jane Withers and Jackie Searl, "Ginger" boasts the world's champion small girl and boy heavies of the screen. There's a swell crash with a world of comedy when these youngsters get together, but—and it ought to be a pleasant surprise to Colonial Theatre audiences—they're not heavies in this picture.

HIGHWAY DEEDS HERE; SURVEYORS AT WORK.

Deeds for right-of-way No. 2 and No. 173 are now here and ready for signatures, where the land owners are donating the right-of-way. Property will be condemned if charges are unreasonable. Contracts are ready to let on sections of No. 2 where the right-of-way is secured, a few at a time. Work can begin at once from Lytle to Natalia, if that section is cleared for action. From Natalia to the section house, and a little further south the engineers should follow the road and not damage so much good land; and an effort will be made to have this rerouted.

Engineers on the Jourdanton end of No. 173 were back in town Tuesday, starting a second survey, we understand, having gone through a preliminary.

MORE CORN-HOG CHECKS GIVEN HERE FRIDAY.

County Agent C. M. Merritt was over from Hondo Friday giving out more corn-hog checks; someone said only a few thousand dollars, but it served to stimulate voting in the election held over the county and the nation next day. Of course the election carried big—who would vote against the government giving him something?

COUNTY TERRACING MACHINE DOING GOOD WORK.

Albert Bilhartz was down from the Biry neighborhood early Monday on business and told The News man that the county terracing machine, recently bought, is now at work in his neighborhood, doing fine work. The first work is being done on the Armin Bendele farm. Half a dozen Biry farmers were first to sign up for use of the machine. The farmer pays the fuel and labor bill; the use of the machine is free from the county. "Terracing," Mr. Bilhartz observed, "saves the soil from erosion and keeps all the water that falls, unless it is very heavy, on the land." It is fine, whether used in dry or wet seasons.

Owls Fall Before Wildcats.

The Del Rio Wildcats defeated the Owls Friday by a score of 13-0 on a wet field. Although the Wildcats were doped to win by a margin of five touchdowns, they found a fighting bunch of Owls which held them to two touchdowns.

In the first quarter, Del Rio kicked off to Hondo. After receiving the ball, the Owls began to march down the field, making two first downs in succession. They were forced to punt, however, on third down because of a wet ball. The remainder of the quarter consisted of several exchanges of punts, but the quarter ended scoreless.

Although the Owls had possession of the ball well into the Wildcats territory at the beginning of the second quarter, they were forced to punt out of bounds when they failed to make the necessary yardage. The Wildcats then took possession of the ball and began a march which resulted in their first touchdown. After two plays, the Wildcats paved the way for the touchdown by completing a pass which was good for fifty yards. After several plays the Wildcats advanced the ball to the Owls' five-yard line where they had a first down. For three plays Hondo's line was impenetrable, but on the fourth down a plunge was good for a touchdown. A place kick for the extra point was wide. Most of the remainder of the half the ball was in Hondo territory, where the Wildcats had the ball when the half ended.

In the third quarter, the Wildcats scored their second touchdown. Again they took possession of the ball deep in their own territory, and marched down the field to score a touchdown. The Wildcats again completed a fifty-yard pass. This placed the ball well into the Owls' territory. After a line play, another pass was completed for about fifteen yards, placing the ball on the Owls' seven-yard line. After gaining very little on three plays, a Del Rio back, who appeared to be going to throw a pass, ran through the line to make another six points. A pass was good for the extra point. The remainder of the quarter was scoreless.

The entire fourth quarter was scoreless, although the Owls made several good gains, and Rothe returned a punt about twenty-five yards. Although the field was wet, the game was the fastest one the Owls have played this season.

DISTRICT FOOTBALL.

Unless a district upset occurs the winner of the south half of this district is decided. Pearsall stopped Carrizo Springs last Friday and should go on in to the championship game. There is many a slip—

* * *

The championship of the north half will be pretty well decided this next Friday. Uvalde goes to Del Rio and Sabinal comes to Hondo. The winner of the Del Rio contest will more than likely to be "in" unless the Owls can develop more of a scoring punch than they showed last Friday.

* * *

The Owls' defense against the Del Rio running game was highly satisfactory. But for those long passes things might have been different. Not that the Owls were due to win ever so much age and experience. They did extremely well, all things considered.

* * *

Scores last week:
Crystal City 25, Cotulla 7.
Uvalde 51, Sabinal 0.
Pearsall 19, Carrizo Springs 6.
Del Rio 13, Hondo 0.

* * *

According to comparative scores Hondo is two touchdowns better than Sabinal. Del Rio 27, Sabinal 0; Del Rio 13, Hondo 0. But those two touchdowns difference were with the Owls playing the best game of the season. Just a little let down and that difference will disappear. Sabinal has a good ball club, heavier than the Owls, with two fast backs. Scouts report them just about such a club as Devine.

* * *

Brantley, easily the best punter in the district, did not get off any good ones in the game, kicking from that close formation. He was showing what he could do in practice before the game.

* * *

The sincere apologies of all concerned for the extreme delay in starting the game Friday. The officials were late. One never did show up at their appointed meeting place so they picked up another man to substitute for him. Then when they got here they rushed out to the fair grounds thinking the game was there.

* * *

FRIDAY WILL BE THE LAST HOME GAME OF THE SEASON FOR THE OWLS. BE THERE AND HELP THE BOYS WIND IT UP WITH A BANG!

* * *

Not having seen the Uvalde Coyotes play we have to judge them by their scores. Uvalde took Crystal by about the same score as did Del Rio BUT Crystal was badly crippled when they played the Wildcats. Uvalde took Sabinal by almost double the score that Del Rio made and Sabinal usually plays their best against Uvalde. We string along with Coach Jimmy Green's Uvalde Coyotes in their game with the Wildcats at Del Rio next Friday afternoon. The game time is 2:30. It is too bad they will not play at night for many people over the district would like to see the game.

—Owlets—

THE TIDE HAS TURNED.

For about five or six years previous to this year, we have been able to say after the Del Rio-Hondo game: "They had a good team and played a swell game, but we're glad we won." This year the tide has turned, and we are only able to say: "It was a good game, but they played just a little better than our boys."

But let's not let this keep us from trying in the next two games. We should play and yell just as if they were regional games. We know our boys play as well as they can (at least we think they do), but everyone of us knows that WE don't YELL as we should. It's when the boys are losing that they need the most yelling, not when they're winning.

Every student in high school should be at the next two games and be there to root for our Owls. Sabinal is the victim next Friday and the stands should be full. There will be one or two busses going to Uvalde for the game on the fifteenth, so be saving your nickels and dimes to take the trip.

Let's turn the tide again, Hondo Rooters, so when the next two games are ended we can say: "Gee, but I'm glad we won."

BOARD MEMBER PASSES AWAY

Mr. Isaac Wilson, a prominent citizen of Hondo and a member of the board of trustees, died suddenly Sunday afternoon, November 3, at 4 o'clock. The deceased suffered only a matter of about an hour and a half of an attack of acute indigestion.

Mr. Wilson, having attained the age of sixty-three years, eleven months and twenty-four days, was born in Greenville, Texas, November 16, 1871. In 1873, at the age of 2 years, he moved to Hondo with his family, where he spent the remainder of his life. All of his immediate family preceded him in death.

Mr. Wilson was married to Miss Eva Jane McCall on November 10, 1897.

Mr. Wilson was a member of the Board of Trustees in earlier years, but the dates are unknown. He was again elected in November, 1931, and served until his death. Mr. Wilson was also a member of the Masonic Lodge.

The deceased is survived by his wife and ten children, five boys and five girls, all of whom attended Hondo High School. They are: Mrs. George Gilliam of Corpus Christi, Texas; John Robert Wilson of Long Beach, California; Charles Wilson of Dickinson, Texas; Mrs. Earl Lacy of Troup, Texas; Homer Wilson of Hondo, Texas; Joe Harvey Wilson of Harlingen, Texas; Mrs. Rudolph Rath of Hondo, Texas; George Isaac Wilson of Refugio, Texas; Thelma Wilson and Mary Ruth Wilson of Hondo, Texas.

Future Farmers In Action.

By H. Meyer, Chapter Reporter.

From all indications this must be a big week for the F. F. A. They are to have a project show and agricultural exhibit at the Fair Grounds November 11th.

The project show will include all of the calves, pigs, and other animals being fed by the boys as their agricultural project. The agricultural exhibit will contain specimens of all important Medina County crops. It will probably be located in the dance hall.

The Farmers are conducting a raffle. A pair of chaps and a pig are being raffled off. Chances can be bought from any member of the F. F. A., or from Homer Rothe of Rothe's Confectionery.

GLEE CLUB.

The Glee Club has selected an operetta, THE FEAST OF THE LITTLE LANTERNS, by Paul Bliss, and rehearsals will begin immediately. Characters haven't been selected to fill the solo parts, but it is planned to do this in the near future.

The success of the operetta that was presented last year, is an indication that such a performance should be looked forward to by everyone.

Both the Senior and Freshman organizations will be utilized in the production, which will be under the direction of Miss Frances A. Harris. Sis Merritt is the accompanist.

THIRD GRADE.

Mrs. C. J. Monkhouse, our room mother, entertained the Third Grade with a delightful Hallowe'en party Friday afternoon. We all had a lovely time and enjoyed refreshments consisting of punch and cake. Hallowe'en crickets, in the orange and black colors, were given as favors to each member of the class.

"HE DO DE BES' HE KIN."

Most of us fail to do half as much as we might with some particular duty or problem just because we feel that on the whole it is too big or too complicated for us to master. Yet there is nearly always some part of it we can do, and doing that part will clear the way for doing something else. It would help us all to keep in mind the philosophy of an old Negro whom Alexander Sprunt quotes in an article in The Progressive Farmer. Old Cyrus was speaking of the owl's note, which he recognized as being not very melodious, but added:—

"He do de bes' he kin wid whut he got . . . . an dat's mo' dan some folks does!"

—Owlets—

LAUGHING MATTER.

A group of traveling men were swapping lies about their radios in a Smith Center drug store. An old man had been listening silently.

"Got a radio, old man?" one of the drummers asked.

"Does it have good selectivity?" the drummer asked, with a wink at his companion.

"Well, I was listenin' to a quartet the other night, an' I didn't like the tenor, so I just tuned him out and listened to the three of 'em," the native answered.

—Tying Tips.

—Owlets—

Two students were uncertainly flivvering their way home.

"Bill," says Henry, "I wan'cha to be very careful. Firs' thing you know you'll have us in a ditch."

"Me?" said Bill, astonished, "why, I thought you was driving."

HONDO ALL-STARS TO MEET SABINAL GOLDEN HURRICANES HERE NOV. 11.

As a part of the celebration to be staged here on Armistice Day, the town football teams from Sabinal and Hondo will meet on Barry Field at ten o'clock. Both teams are studded with former high school and college stars, and a great battle is in prospect. The Hondo team, which is being coached by J. G. Barry, will present a backfield that boasts more speed than any college team in the country. Don Windrow at quarter, Homer Rothe and August Finger at halves, and Joe Vance at fullback, ought to show Sabinal something as long as their wind lasts. Bru Miller and Bob Zerr are reserve backs. Harris Parsons and Cliff Sadler will be the best pair of ends ever to perform before a Hondo crowd, with Herbert Lamb a capable reserve. At the tackle posts, Coach Barry will present the mighty Bill DuBose and Squamp Finger, with John Mumme and Buster Vaughn as additional power in case the first two tire. Tony Taylor and Jimmie Rihn will play at the guard positions, and Muennink at center.

CELEBRATE GOLDEN WEDDING ANNIVERSARY.

Mr. and Mrs. Aug. Schuehle of Hondo observed the fiftieth anniversary of their marriage on October 31, 1935, with a Golden Wedding celebration at their former home on the edge of town. The gold theme was featured in all the decorations, orange and yellow marigolds being used in adornment of the living room. In the dining room, the lace covered table was centered with a crystal bowl of yellow dahlias, the gift of Mrs. N. C. Johnson and Miss Velma King. Flanking the lovely floral centerpiece were four brass holders with lighted yellow tapers.

At 12:30, dinner was served, consisting of barbecue, chicken, salads, gold cake, apple pie and coffee. Preceding the dinner Rev. W. C. Leibfarth, pastor of St. Paul's Lutheran Church, asked the blessing, and at the end of the repast Rev. C. Weeber of Bethlehem Lutheran Church of Quihi, returned thanks.

There were fifty guests present. Those from out-of-town were Mrs. Chas. Wurzbach of Riomedina; Mr. and Mrs. Geo. Gerdes and daughter of San Antonio, Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Starnes of San Antonio, Mr. and Mrs. Joe Weynand of D'Hanis, Mr. J. B. Ney of D'Hanis, Mrs. O. Bradford of San Antonio, Mr. and Mrs. O. J. Schuehle of San Antonio, and Mrs. Otis Schuehle of Corpus Christi.

Fifty years ago, at 10 o'clock in the morning, October 31, 1885, Miss Antje Frerichs joined her life with that of Mr. August Schuehle in a marriage ceremony performed in Bethlehem Lutheran Church of Quihi, with Rev. Frehner, pastor, officiating. Attendants were the late Johanna Frerichs Bless and George Gerdes, the latter being one of the guests at the Golden Wedding celebration fifty years later. Following the ceremony at the church, an all-day celebration was held at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Rolf Frerichs. They made their home about 7 miles above Quihi on part of the Rolf Frerichs estate. In 1890 they moved to Hondo where they have lived ever since, endearing themselves to their six children, five grand children, their neighbors and friends.

The children of the celebrants, who were all present on the joyful anniversary, are Charles John Schuehle, George Antone Schuehle, Rolf Andrew Schuehle, Elizabeth Johanna Schuehle (Mrs. Earl Starnes), all of Hondo, Oscar Joseph Schuehle of San Antonio, and Nora Josephine Schuehle (Mrs. Nora Bendele), also of Hondo. There are also five grandchildren to rejoice with Mr. and Mrs. Schuehle. They are Otis Charles Schuehle of Corpus Christi, Charles John Schuehe of Rice Institute, Houston; Nora Ann Bendele, Frances Georgia Bendele and Robert Schuehle Bendele, all of Hondo.

The many Hondo and Medina County friends of the "young" couple congratulate them on their fifty years of happy wedded life and extend best wishes for the future.

Mrs. H. W. Barkuloo is here from Goose Creek on a several weeks' visit to her son, Robert W. Barkuloo, and family. NOTES FROM ST. JOHN'S SCHOOL.

The task of reporting the activities of "St. John's Stars" as well as various other interesting happenings of the school have been assigned me by my teacher. I accept this task as being an honor conferred on me and I shall try to do my very best to entertain you with notes which I hope shall not tire you.

VARIOUS ACTIVITIES OF CLUB.

Our club sponsored two parties last month, which were indeed very successful. We claim to be a social group working under one head. We try to plan just the same as "grown-ups". Perhaps our planning is just as good as theirs—in our sphere it is. Anyway, our planning reaches the point of "success" every time we do plan, and this means, of course, that when we reach success we are also a successful social group as well as being an active one. You know, folks, that if you neglect mental work you become mentally paralyzed or dumb, so too with social activity, if the members are not active and kept planning they become socially lazy and with this social laziness, society fails to become what it should be.

A Hallowe'en Party was planned by the President, Treasurer and myself. All had an enjoyable time in the school auditorium for a few hours on Hallowe'en night. The parents of the children who attended seemed to have enjoyed themselves too, although I believe that some of these ladies must have had headaches going home. "Hallowe'en, however, comes but once a year and when it comes it brings good cheer."

We thank those ladies who came to our party and hope that they will come back again when we have something that will interest them.

As I pause to thank them for coming to our social, I wish to thank them, in the name of our teachers and members of the club, for their kindly interest in our club by helping the members with these socials which we give. Without their cooperation and aid we would be unable to carry on our work. So thank you, dear parents and friends.

* * *

OUR NEW GLOBE.

The club purchased a new globe from Chicago last month, one of which the members are very proud. Henry Martin Finger and Lloyd Huesser brought it from the depot and they were the first to see it. They thought they were the "privileged ones" because they saw it before the President.

I think that our "first purchase" is one that the club can boast of. Don't you who read this think so too?

* * *

GENEROUS MEMBERS.

Mary Ann Noonan and Henry Martin Finger offered their services to keep their classroom homelike in the future by giving it a reguiar "Spring Cleaning" at least once a month. Sister Matthew said she admired them for this and expressed her thanks to them. She also gave them this big compliment: "Your generous offer to do this is nothing else than a display of your genuine home training." So Mary Ann and Henry Martin are looking forward to "the next round-up".

* * *

A VISIT TO OUR ROOM.

Last month too we were privileged by a visit from Rev. Mother M. Agatha of San Antonio, with Sister Mary Celestine as companion. We all tried to look our best and do our best during their stay with us. We hope that both will return soon again as all enjoyed their visit immensely.

* * *

ANOTHER VISIT.

Several little ones visited our class last month. What do you think they did for us? Some of them read their lessons, and Sister and the pupils were astonished to hear such tiny tots read so well. Among those who read were Elsie Mae Ziegenbalg and Bobby Lou Rath. Another little group came with their tablets and of course these tablets were written on by the little ones—writing and figures shown on the paper surprised the teacher and pupils. I cannot recall names of this group—not that I am dull in remembering, but I am not quite acquainted with the little ones or their names. I think I have fulfilled my task with the information given above, so now I will leave the rest of the column to the Honor Roll.

QUIHI NOTES.

And Abraham prayed unto God; and God healed Abimelech. Gen 20: 17.

What has happened? A lot of backsliding, a disgraceful repetition of our follies. The drama of Sodom and the region around that now formed the Dead Sea, that desolate and lifeless body of salty and sulphurous water, made Abraham shift his dwelling farther south. Abimelech, king of Gerar, one of those tribal regents, true to pagan fashion of that day, promptly added Sarah, Abraham's wife, to his royal harem, as had been done by Pharaoh of Egypt years ago. Fear of getting murdered for her sake had, in both instances, induced the patriarch to present his wife as his "sister" to royalty. In both instances this brazen schemery had utterly failed. "I (the Lord) am thy shield." Abraham again had forgotten. The Lord again must set things right. In a dream He discloses the real situation to the frightetned king who obviously had been impressed with the fate of Sodom. He quakes and chafes and calls man and wife to a stormy account. He hastens to make amends. Often pagans shame the "faithfui". Abraham has but lame excuses, convincing to nobody, least of all to himself. What must he do? What all renegades and backsliders should do, turn to God with an humble, contrite heart and ask forgiveness and have Him undo the harm done. So he did. That schooling of faith has "tough breaks". Woe to the best of men, if God's grace were not greater than our deeds and misdeeds, ever and anon greater than our heart with its weakness and folly and crawfish tactics.

* * *

Cold and dreary days are here again and the long forgotten heaters agan become objects of interest and the supply of winter fuel gets close attention and the checkered series of winter ailments will soon make their unwelcome re-appearance. Have a care. An ounce of prevention saves a ton of doctor bills, though that profession also must make a living, but of others, if you can help it. Let's have a sympathetic thought and a thoughtful prayer for those sections infected and afflicted with walkouts, strikes, earthquakes, hurricanes, and war. Who are we that we should have preference, that we have peace and contentment while looking over green pastures and the returns of a fair harvest? Does it move us closer to the Lord? That's His purpose.

* * *

The Sunday school teachers will meet next Friday. They have their program for Christmas well in hand. See that your children attend Sunday school more regularly than ever, to join in and help put us up something worth while. They have the greatest benefit of it.

Miss Lorine Brucks is fast recovering from her clavicle experience and so is Robert B. Breiten with his fractured arm, but little Effie Mae Balzen carries her arm in the sling with the same ailment. And Mr. Jacob Oefinger barely escaped a severe injury. "To whom will ye flee for help?"

THE NEW CHEVROLET.

New Master de luxe and Standard Chevrolets for 1936, embodying marked advances in styling, engineering, and performance, were introduced November 2 at the New York automobile show and simultaneously throughout the country at dealer salesrooms, which have already been liberally stocked with new models for display and delivery.

Completeness in equipment, in appointments, and in convenience is stressed in the company's 1936 announcement.

The Master de luxe, offered with either knee action or conventional springing, has been restyled in its more important appearance elements, notably by the adoption of a higher and narrower grille of distinctively original design, in combination with a new treatment of the hood louvres, new style headlamps mounted on the sides of the radiator shell, and new interior trim.

The lower priced Standard models have been completely redesigned in chassis and bodies. Last year the Standards differed materially both in appearance and in construction from the Masters; this year, the two lines are identical in all major features of styling, engineering, and performance, the chief difference being only a matter of wheelbase.

Outstanding among the many new features of both Master and Standard models for 1936 are perfected hydraulic brakes; improved engines having higher compression ratio (6 to 1), balanced carburetor, full-length water jacketing, and other changes resulting in better cooling and improved gasoline and oil economy; and cromodine rust-prevention of fenders and running boards.

The solid steel turret top, exclusive last year with the Master models, has been adopted this year for the Standard line also. Spoke-type pressed steel wheels, instead of wire wheels, are used on all Standard models.

Body interiors of Master models show marked advances in comfort and style. An important innovation is found in the design of the front seating arrangement of the Master coach and town-sedan. Instead of the usual divided and hinged front seat of two-door models, a single seat cushion extends the full width of the car, permitting three passengers to ride comfortably. The seat-back is divided, the right side section being hinged to fold forward over the seat cushion to open a passageway to the rear compartment.

Standard Models Completely New.

Chevrolet's Standard models for 1936, besides incorporating features that appear for the first time on the Masters, take their place in the line as entirely new models, with new box girder chassis frame, more powerful engine, longer wheel-base and larger bodies. The line of body types has been increased to seven by the addition of three models—the four-door sport sedan with built-in trunk, the two-door town sedan with built-in trunk, and the cabriolet.

The Standard model wheelbase, formerly 107 inches, is now 109, while its overall length, last year 170 1-2 inches, is 12 to 13 inches greater. Bodies are longer and wider, with more leg room, wider seats and additional head room. Car weight is increased 135 pounds. Springing has been improved by the use of longer front and shorter rear springs, which possess more nearly equal frequencies and so minimize pitching.

Side rails and cross members of the new Standard frame are all of rigid box section, a type of construction that has appeared on costly European cars but never before in the low price field in this country. Although greatly increased in strength and in stiffness, the box girder members add so greatly to the rigidity of the structure that only three cross members are required. The extreme simplicity of the frame greatly facilitates access to chassis units for lubrication and service operations.

Horsepower of the Standard, formerly 74, has been increased to 78 at 3200 r. p. m. by changes in combustion chamber design, valve operation, and carburetion in combination with an increase in compression ratio from 5.6 to 1 to 6 to 1.

Clutch improvements include the use of a new "shot-blast" process of treating cushion springs of the disc, and a more accurate alignment of the release levers. A rail-type shifting mechanism on the transmission with positive interlock, has been substituted for the plate type formerly used. Fuel tank capacity, formerly 11 gallons, is now 14. A ventilated generator has been adopted.

Perfected Hydraulic Brakes on All Models.

In changing to perfected hydraulic brakes on both chassis models, Chevrolet has adopted the hydraulic principle of brake actuation to its own design of brake mechanism within the brake drums. Instead of the cable operated floating cam formerly used at each wheel, a master hydraulic cylinder with double opposed pistons is used to actuate each pair of one-piece articulated brake shoes.

The master cylinder, whose piston is moved by the brake pedal to transmit pressure by a column of fluid to each of the wheel cylinders, is mounted on the frame. The master piston is one inch in diameter, while wheel pistons are larger to effect an increase of braking effect at the wheels. Front wheel pistons are larger than those of the rear wheels, to balance the breaking effect when, in stopping, extra weight thrown on the front wheels gives them greater traction. This arrangement prevents locking the rear wheels by themselves by heavy brake application.

The hand brake lever actuates both service brake shoes in both rear wheels, The connection is by flexible cable, operating a lever and toggle mechanism within the rear brake drums.

On the Masters, brake drums are of composite construction, comprising a cast iron rim and a pressed steel web. The braking surface is accurately machined, after assembly to the wheel hub, assuring true concentricity. Long life, freedom from scoring, and more effective braking are advantages claimed for cast iron. The outer surface of the drum is machined in deep grooves that form five ribs, to promote cooling.

On the Standard, equally effective braking is obtained by using pressed steel drums, which are one inch larger in diameter than last year's, increasing the brake lining area to 158 1-4 inches, 17 sq. ins. more than formerly. An improved grade of closely grained steel is used for the drums, and their braking surfaces are machined to accurate form and smooth finish. Dirt shields have been added.

Engines Have Been Refined.

Engines of the Master and Standard models are identical in design and in horsepower and torque. Maximum horsepower is 79 at 3200 r. p. b. (an increase of 5 h. p. for the Standard). At 1000 r. p. m. horsepower is 30; at 2000, it is 60. Maximum torque is obtained over an unusually wide range of engine speeds, 156 foot pounds being maintained all the way between 900 and 2000 r. p. m. The increase in compression ratio to 6 to 1 is credited with effecting a 6 per cent improvement in fuel economy. Combustion chambers are reshaped to attain smoothness with higher compression. The new chamber follows the "blue flame" combustion principles pioneered by Chevrolet several years ago, the form having been worked out by newly devised mechanical laboratory methods to attain maximum effectiveness.

Chevrolet's balanced carburetor is another innovation to promote fuel economy and easy starting. Air pressure in the float chamber is balanced with that inside the carburetor intake to effect a constant ratio of air to gasoline in the fuel mixure and to offset the choking effect that gradually increases as the air cleaner becomes clogged with dust.

Cooling System Improvements.

Major improvements have been made in the Chevrolet cooling system to maintain lower engine temperatures and to attain important benefits in the control of engine oil temperature and of cylinder block and valve push rod expansion. The chief change is the adoption of full-length water jackets. Formerly, only the upper part of the cylinders was water jacketed. In the new engines, the water jacketing extends far below the lowermost point reached by the head of the piston, nearly to the lower edge of the piston skirt at the bottom of the stroke. The rings thus come in contact only with cylinder wall surface that is constantly cooled. Since the full depth of the cylinders is surrounded by water, the cylinders warm up evenly.

The most valuable effect of full length water jacketing, however, is its automatic control of engine oil temperature. In the previous design, the engine oil would attain a temperature 125 degrees hotter than the water, by coming in contact with the uncooled lower part of the cylinders. With the new full length jackets, oil temperature runs 50 degrees cooler than formerly. Still further cooling of the oil supply to the valve rocker shaft is effected by running the supply line through the cylinder block, where it is surrounded by water, and the oil is further reduced in temperature by 10 degrees.

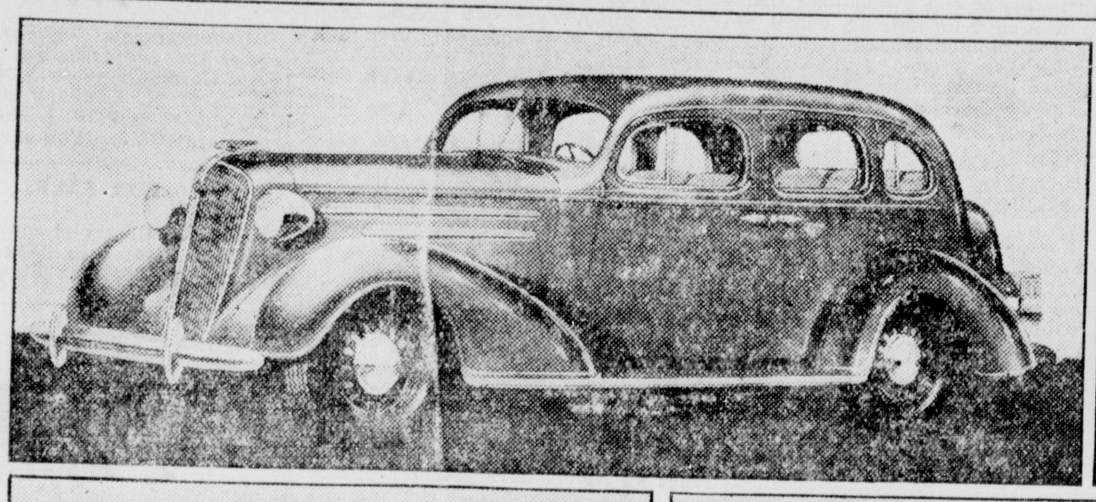

The new system not only maintains a lower constant oil temperature, but acts to warm up the oil supply to the valve mechanism more quickly after a cold start. Since the water in the cylinder block, held there by a thermostat, quickly heats when the engine is started, it begins to warm the copper tube carrying oil to the rocker arms almost immediately after the engine is started. The effect is to cause a more nearly even expansion of the cylinder block and the valve mechanism.

Changes in Springing.

Chevrolets all-enclosed knee action units, now entering their third year, remain unchanged from their original design except for an improvement in the methods of attaching the wheel spindle to the support arm. The spindle is now pressed into the arm under 10,000 pounds pressure, and its inner end is then peened over. Suspension of the Master model with conventional springs has been improved. Riding qualities of the Standard have been improved by an entirely new design of springs and suspension. The front springs are now 36 inches long, 3 inches longer than formerly, and their deflection rate is reduced from 315 pounds per inch to 209. Rear springs are 49 inches long, or 5 inches shorter, their deflection rate being increased from 105 pounds per inch to 112. The front springs are now shackled at their rear ends.

1936 Master De Luxe and Standard Chevrolets are Replete with New Features

New Master De Luxe and Standard Chevrolets for 1936 show marked advances in appearance and in engineering. Perfected hydraulic brakes, high-compression engines with full-length water jackets, and balanced carburetion are among the mechanical improvements. The solid steel Turret Top Fisher body is now used on the Standard as well as the Master De Luxe models. Either Knee-Action or conventional springing may be had in the Master models. The illustrations show: Top left, the Master De Luxe sport sedan, with built-in trunk; top right, the re-styled, deeply moulded radiator grille, used on all models; lower left, the simple arrangement of Chevrolet's perfected hydraulic brakes, all models; and, lower right, a Standard sedan.

LINCOLN.

Outside of a log cabin stands a tall, thin, wiry, sinewy young man with an extra heavy axe in his hand. He raises his head and with a far reaching look expands the forest before him. What is on the other side of the forest he knows not. Only one knows that—Destiny.

In this young man's face is seriousness, confidence, ambition, concentration, decision, energy, honesty, honor, hope, intelligence, judgment, justice, kindness, modesty, prudence, purpose, self-control, self-denial, sincerity, truthfulness, vigor, virtue and wisdom.

Far in the distance can be heard a faint noise. It grows louder and louder. Look at those trees falling! This young prodigious wood-chopper is blazing a path through the untrodden wilderness and forest of Constitutional Liberty!

While this wood-chopping was going on, this young man, in eagerness to know the contents of Blackstone's Commentaries, walked 44 miles to procure the volume. Imagine a boy of today, so hungry for an education that he would walk 9 miles a day to attend a rude school in a log cabin. A country boy always puts it over.

We lose sight of this young man for 20 years. But look over yonder! 60,000 rails have been split. Destiny receives this young man, and he steps into the White House.

These circumstances are your circumstances. You have the axe in your hand; the same forest is before you, and the same Destiny is ahead of you. Nobody can cut through the forest for you. That is your work. Nobody can give you anything to help you out. Something has got to come out of you.

Why are you standing still?

—Exchange.

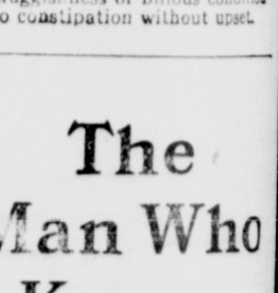

COME RIGHT IN.

A young man who had received his diploma had been looking around successively for a position, for employment, and for a job. Entering an office, he asked to see the manager, and while waiting he said to the office boy:

"Do you suppose there is any opening here for a college graduate?"

"Well, dere will be," was the reply, "if de boss don't raise me salary to t'ree dollars a week by tomorrer night."

A liquid can always be taken in gradually reduced doses. Reduced dosage is the secret of any real relief from constipation.

Ask a doctor about this. Ask your druggist how very popular Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin has become. It gives the right kind of help, and right amount of help. Taking a little less each time, gives the bowels a chance to act of their own accord, until they are moving regularly and thoroughly without any help at all.

Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin contains senna and cascara—both natural laxatives that form no habit. The action is gentle, but sure. It will relieve any sluggishness or bilious condition due to constipation without upset.

The Man Who Knows

Whether the Remedy You are taking for Headaches, Neuralgia or Rheumatism Pains is SAFE is Your Doctor. Ask Him

Don't Entrust Your Own or Your Family's Well-Being to Unknown Preparations

BEFORE you take any preparation you don't know all about for the relief of headaches; or the pains of rheumatism, neuritis or neuralgia, ask your doctor what he thinks about it — in comparison with Genuine Bayer Aspirin.

We say this because, before the discovery of Bayer Aspirin, most so-called "pain" remedies were advised against by physicians as being bad for the stomach; or, often, for the heart. And the discovery of Bayer Aspirin largely changed medical practice.

Countless thousands of people who have taken Bayer Aspirin year in and out without ill effect, have proved that the medical findings about its safety were correct.

Remember this: Genuine Bayer Aspirin is rated among the fastest methods yet discovered for the relief of headaches and all common pains . . . and safe for the average person to take regularly.

You can get real Bayer Aspirin at any drug store — simply by never asking for it by the name "aspirin" alone, but always saying BAYER ASPIRIN when you buy.

R. C. CAMPAIGNS TO PREVENT ACCIDENTS

Program Inaugurated in Local Chapters to Cut Down Farm and Home Accidents

The American Red Cross has launched a nation-wide campaign to eliminate hazards in the home and on the farm that now take an annual toll of nearly 35,000 lives, according to a recent statement by James L. Fieser, vice chairman in charge of domestic operations.

"Every Red Cross chapter is being asked to play a part in this campaign," Mr. Fieser said. "Hazards in the various communities will be pointed out. The children in our schools throughout the country will be given a list of the home hazards and asked to enroll parents or relatives in the fight against them."

Nearly five million men, women, and children were temporarily disabled in the homes of America last year by accidents, officials of the National Safety Council have revealed. Most of the accidents in which persons were killed and injured could have been prevented, according to this safety agency, this fact alone largely motivating the Red Cross drive for accident elimination.

Active cooperation of social, civic, educational, veterans', and other groups has been secured. Red Cross inspection forms or home check lists will be distributed to homes where there are no children with the help of these organizations.

Due to inaccessibility and lack of compensation coverage, little or no pioneering has been done in the field of farm safety, the Red Cross states. However, more people were accidentally killed in agricultural pursuits last year than in any other occupation, making the need for safety education and farm home inspection apparent.

Other agencies now active in the accident-prevention field point to the fact that, because of its nearly 13,000 chapters and branches, the Red Cross has a unique opportunity to successfully promote a project of this nature.

Home accidents injure many more than do automobile accidents; they kill nearly as many, claiming an average of about 80 lives daily. In terms of dollars and cents, for the practical minded, home accidents cost more than $1,000 per minute.

Accidents of all types are Public Enemy No. 4. Only three diseases cause as many deaths each year, heart disease, cancer, and cerebral hemorrhage.

"The home is not the place of safety it is commonly supposed to be," said Mr. Fieser in commenting on the new Red Cross service to the community. "The Red Cross, as a part of its chartered obligation to prevent death and alleviate suffering, is conducting this humanitarian program to cut down the mounting toll of avoidable personal injury and death in the homes of the country."

The annual Red Cross roll call, running from Armistice Day to Thanksgiving Day, is one of the means of backing such a campaign. All citizens of the United States are offered the opportunity to join and assist in the work of the organization.

Red Cross Has Busy Year; Statistics Impressive; Services Varied

Figures gathered at random from the year's report of the American Red Cross reveal the magnitude of the work being carried on by that organization.

Red Cross workers assisted 54,305 veterans; 587 Red Cross Public Health nurses paid 921,455 visits to 186,326 patients; 98,441 first aid certificates were issued while 46,693 persons were trained in life saving. Volunteer workers produced 3,102,843 surgical dressings, with 80,901 volunteers being on active duty throughout the year.

First Aid Treatment Taught Thousands By Red Cross

More than 187,000 certificates showing completion of first aid courses were issued last year by the Red Cross. This shows a gain of 56,000 certificates over the previous year. Approximately 64,200 boys in C.C.C. camps throughout the country passed first aid tests. Since the Red Cross first entered the field of first aid teaching, being one of the first organizations in the world to do so, almost one million persons have been trained in handling emergency treatment.

The annual report of the Red Cross further reveals that more than 327,000 copies of the Red Cross Aid Handbook have been sold at home and abroad.

The Red Cross has assisted 54,305 veterans in clearing their cases through the U. S. Veterans' Bureau this past year.

Last year 3,837,941 persons became members of the Red Cross. The annual roll call takes place each year between Armistice Day and Thanksgiving Day.

Junior Red Cross members increased by 402,000 enrollments during the year which has just passed. Junior members carried on an exchange of correspondence with junior members in 62 other countries having Red Cross Societies.

COUNTRY TALK.

By R. R. Claridge.

The government is paying tenant farmers a dollar a day and their keep, to make roads and bridges; to reforest and otherwise improve vast tracts of cut-over pine lands, in several Southern states, the same owned by wealthy men, with never a chance for the tax-paying sucker to get back a cent of the enormous cost.

—CCT—

Only think how much better it would have been for the government to have paid these tenant farmers to clear and fence these lands and build neat little 3 and 4-room cottages upon them, after buying from the owners and selling to the home-builder at price and terms they could afford to pay. The boys would have been kept off "relief", same as they have, from big business bolshevistic "depression," and the nice little farm women proud to move out of unpainted box shacks into homes of their own.

—CCT—

And the tax-payers would not have been out a dollar; because, with a house to move into, and a new field to go to work upon, the hard-working young farmers would have paid for their new homes, especially, if this same blank fool government had known enough to keep the crop-gamblers off them, the same racketeers having systematically robbed them ever since the civil war; in other words, kept them working for next to nothing, and boarding themselves.

—CCT—

As long as the farmer and his folks could get milk and cow-peas and such like, along with a little 8 to 10 per cent money from the bank, with which to grow another crop for about half its cost to produce, he managed to get by after a meager fashion; but when the cash and the credit both played out, finding him unprepared for such a debacle, the situation has gone very hard with him and I am afraid the squeeze is not over; though the country is in better shape than the town to stand further depression.

—CCT—

However, it begins to look as if the cities and towns are to get all the nearly five billion dollars, to raise which the government sold bonds for the tax-payers to pay interest on. Indications point unmistakably to this enormous sum, dispensed by the building and re-building costly houses, beautifying parks, etc., etc., in town. Meantime, have you observed a sign that any of the billions are to go to making homes for homeless country people?

—CCT—

Besides the homeless farm tenants, there are thousands of boys 16 to 20 years of age, employed in the C. C. C. camps, to say nothng of other thousands with no jobs in sight, who, if opportunity were afforded them, would buy and develop farm homes on plans outlined in preceding paragraphs, with view to getting married and settling down to useful lives upon homes of their own. Very many of the latter are devoting their 3-C dollar-a-day to the support of their home-folks, who otherwise would be on other "relief."

—CCT—

But when they get the forests of the timber barons in shape to sell for more money to them or some one else, it will not mean home for them or their folks. And what their 3-C job will mean when finished, to a soul on earth, except the owners of these lands, I am unable to see. The tenants and their families will be exactly where they started in, as will also the single boys and their folks. And our tax-supported government will be out the millions the crazy mess has cost.

—CCT—

As to the practicability of the plan I have outlined, I will add that while in the agricultural and industrial service of the old south-west Gould line, (now the Mo. Pacific) for nearly 20 years, the last few years as head of a joint department, I succeded in getting two owners of vast tracts of timber land, one in east Texas, and one in Louisiana, to see that, besides being a good proposition for the buyers of small tracts, it was feasable as a business deal for the seller. On the Louisiana tract, we got far enough along to select location for a start.

—CCT—

But it was about the time the smart set in the big towns, without the sense to see that the best and safest backing for a town, big or little, are prosperous country community centers, started to break up those already established, and move them, schools, churches and all, to the larger towns. And it was about the time the Federal-state partnership turned its county agents loose to make two stalks of everything grow where but one stalk grew before; in other words, to "over-produce" a "surplus," against a time when they would average up, by plowing up every other stalk.

—CCT—

And about the same time, the land speculators got busy, especially in East Texas, for which my publicity work may have been to blame. Instead of paying the home buyer for making his country home, and charging the cost up to him, the land shark took what little money he had as down payment, and left him to go to. And with nothing to live on while making a home, it didn't take him long. But I try to vision something good in most everything. The boys are too far away from the big town, with no way to go, and no spare change in their pockets, to see a movie show, wherein a naked [illegible] star not under eclipse parades the stage, at a salary of a thousand dollars a week. So that, the boys are not liable to augment the crime wave.

P. T. A. SPONSORS SUCCESSFUL HALLOWE'EN AFFAIR.

The masquerade dance given by the D'Hanis P. T. A. last Wednesday evening in the High School Auditorium was a decided success. The hall had been beautifully decorated in the Hallowe'en motif; keno and lunch stands were kept busy, while the dancing continued until a late hour. Judges awarded prizes for costumes worn in the grand march as follows: for best costumes, Mrs. V. D. Currin and Mr. Herman Couser; for funniest costumes, Mrs. Joe Rieber and Mr. John Rieber; for children, Edward Cline and "Dooley" Crow. Entrance prizes went to Mrs. John Santleben, Mr. Rudolph Rath, Clayton Nester and Mary Lou Albrecht.

MISCELLANEOUS SHOWER.

A miscellaneous shower was given at the home of Mrs. Geo. H. Balzen, October 26, in honor of Miss Nora Leinweber, a bride of this month. The rooms were beautifuly decorated in Hallowe'en colors of orange and black, and baskets of marigolds. About seventy-five guests registered in the bride's book.

The bride-to-be, attractively gowned in brown crepe, entered with Ethel Marie Lindeburg and Elna Saathoff, while the portable played "The Eyes of Texas". After the honoree was seated, the toast following toast was read by Miss Corine Nietenhoefer:

TO NORA

Oh, bride so fair, with beauty rare,
We wish for you today great happiness.
With much success,
While going through life's way.

We wish for you a love that's true,
And lasting through the years.
A happy wife,
You'll have no fears.

You must be good as all wives should,
And gladly do your part,
Come weal, come woe,
Share with him, so
You'll always be sweethearts.

Now, Nora, dear, with hearts sincere,
We've brought to you our love,
These bundles all like raindrops small
Come showering from above.

We trust you see, they'll useful be,
Much pleasure bring to you
We only ask, while at your task
You think of friends so true.

Miss Leinweber expressed her thanks for the lovely gifts. The hostesses, Misses Thelma Schlentz, Lillian Moehring, Ima Leinweber and Ida Balzen, served chicken sandwiches, cake, cookies, and hot chocolate. Orange and black baskets with Halowe'en candy were the dainty plate favors.

MISCELLANEOUS SHOWER.

On Sunday evenng Mesdames Louis Biry, Frank Bader, Frank Biry and George Bader, with the assistance of Misses Alma Bader, Inez Biry and Ella Bader, gave a miscellaneous shower honoring Miss Lucille Bader, at the Biry school house.

The room and stage were decorated in typical Hallowe'en colors, with a profusion of lovely autumn flowers as an added decoration.

Miss Lucille was preceded by two little girls, Margaret Bader and Geraldine Bohl, who were dressed in the Hallowe'en colors in keeping with the color scheme.

Mrs. T. H. Oliver gave the toast.

Here's to Lucille and her future husband,
We will ask their success in our prayers.
And through life's dark shadows and sun shine,
May good luck ever be theirs.
We have toasted our sweethearts,
Our friends and their wives,
We have toasted each other,
Asking all merry lives.
Now don't frown when I say,
This toast beats all the others,
So let's give one more girl.
That's to Lucille and her future husband.

Then Mrs. T. H. Oliver sang Carrie Jacobs Bond's "I Love You Truly", accompanied by Mrs. Louis Biry at the piano.

The gifts were then passed and viewed by each guest, after which chicken sandwiches, cake and punch were served.

Seventy guests registered.

to you a realization of the burden of your company's tax bill and will perhaps indicate the present tendency toward excessive taxation, which obviously must be borne, directly or indirectly, by Mr. and Mrs. John Citizen."

Hundreds of other businesses, large and small, find themselves in a position such as this. For a while it may be possible to meet increased taxes by lowering the return to stockholders. But sooner or later, the tax burden must be reflected in the cost of whatever the company sells, whether it be a locomotive or a can of beans.

The entire public must always eventually foot the bill caused by reckless, extravagant and wasteful government.—Industrial News Review.

FIVE REQUISITES OF COOPERATION.

According to Earl W. Benjamin, General Manager of the Pacific Egg Producers, there are five requisites to success in forming and conducting an agricultural cooperative:

First, qualified executives must be employed to handle the cooperative's affairs.

Second, the co-op must be soundly and adequately financed.

Third, it should stand on its own legs, meet competition through advancing the efficiency of operation, and should so far as it is possible avoid depending on governmental subsidies.

Fourth, it should limit its activities strictly to the business purposes of the co-operative.

Fifth, it should keep all members thoroughly informed as to what is going on.

As Mr. Benjamin says, cooperatives lacking any of these requisites are doomed to trouble sooner or later.

Good cooperatives are of the utmost service to agriculture—poor, badly organized ones can do great harm to the very cause they espouse. —Industrial News Review.

ECONOMIC INSANITY.

The American tax system is outmoded, wasteful, inefficient—and essentially vicious. That is a digest of statements recently made by a number of economists of standing.

It is especially vicious when it comes to the so-called "share-the-wealth" tax measures which propose that higher taxes be levied against individuals and corporations. "Big-business" is to be penalized for being "big". And, according to the advocates of these measures, the average citizen will benefit—wealth will pay the bill, and he will receive the services of government for little or nothing. What a misrepresentation of fact!

The average citizen who is taxed to death now, will be taxed still more as new taxes are created. Every tax on industry must be paid by him, through higher prices for commodities and services. Every new tax adds to his cost of living.

The confiscatory "share-the-wealth" tax bill now pending in Congress would, according to its sponsors, cause increased federal income of $270,000,000 a year. If that is true, it would "redistribute wealth" to the tune of about $2.25 for each man, woman and child in this country. And it would fall $3,000,000,000 short of meeting the deficit incurred in the last fiscal year alone!

It is possible that such schemes are put forward in an attempt to blind our citizens to the fact that we need tax reduction and fewer taxes—and not tax increases and new taxes. Overtax wealth—and you kill initiative, employment and industrial development. Overtax industry—and the consumer finds himself faced with rising prices and declining income. As a recovery measure, that looks like economic insanity.—Industrial News Review.

JURY NOTE.

A Union Pacific shopman had been drawn on a federal grand jury, and didn't want to serve. When his name was called, he asked Judge Pollock to excuse him. "We are very busy at the shops," said he, "and I ought to be there."

"So you are one of those men who think the Union Pacific couldn't get along without you," remarked the judge.

"No, Your Honor," said the shopman. "I know it could get along without me, but I don't want it to find out."

"Excused," said the judge.—Topeka Capital.

BLACK-AHR.

A pretty church wedding took place last Wednesday, Oct. 30, 1935, at 9 o'clock A. M., in St. Louis Catholic Church, when Allen Nitsch Black of San Antonio and Miss Gladys Elvira Ahr of Castroville were united in the holy bonds of matrimony. Rev. Dean J. Lenzen officiated. The ceremony was performed in a Nuptial High Mass.

The attendants were: Branch Keller and Miss Erline Haass, Harry Spahn and Miss Mildred Tschirhart, Lee Allen Ahr and Miss Beverly Nitsch. Samuel Ahr, brother of the bride, gave her away, being met at the communion rail by the groom and his best man, Lee Allen Ahr.

The bridal party entered the church while the wedding march was played by Alfred Schmitt, and also accompanied the choir whose singing was excellent. Gabe Hahn, cousin of the bride, sang a solo "Ave Maria" during the Mass.

Immediately after the ceremony the bridal party and a large number of invited guests repaired to the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Adolph Ahr, where an all-day celebration was held. A sumptuous dinner and supper were served.

At four o'clock the newly-weds left on a honeymoon trip to Houston, Galveston, Fort Worth and other points. Before they left the bride cut the wedding cake, which was baked by and a gift from Mrs. Otto M. Naegelin. It was a three layer white confection with two hundred little white roses with yellow centers which matched the other decorations in the dining room. The gifts received by the bride were many and valuable.

The groom is a well known young man from San Antonio, the only son of Mr. and Mrs. Ben Nitsch, while the bride is the accomplished daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Adolph Ahr of Castroville.

Upon their return they will be at home in San Antonio at 120 Calvert St., where they will be pleased to have their friends call on them.
